

Research to reduce child exploitation material

A new research program will develop innovative approaches to make it harder for criminals to create, distribute, store, and view child exploitation material.

Securing Australia's borders for the future

Drones prowling Australia's far flung ocean boundaries, undersea sensors monitoring shipping movements around our coastlines – this could be the future of maritime surveillance to secure Australia's vast ocean borders against future threats.

Joint Media Release with Senator the Hon Linda Reynolds CSC – Ministerial Council for Police and Emergency Management

The Coalition Government welcomes the commitment by state and territory governments and partners to work together to fight transnational, serious and organised crime and combat emergency management issues.

Joint Media Release with the Hon Paul Fletcher MP and the Hon Michael Keenan MP – NDIS Taskforce makes first arrest

The Coalition Government established the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) Fraud Taskforce in July to tackle potential fraud against the NDIS.

Page not found | Prime Minister of Australia

The page address (URL) that you have requested from the Prime Minister of Australia's website cannot be found.

There may be a number of reasons for this:

- We have recently redesigned the website to make it easier and faster for you to find the information you need. This means the bookmarks and addresses that may have been used in the past to link to pages on the site may no longer work.

How to find the page you need

- You can browse using top or bottom navigation links on the page to locate the information you are seeking
- You can proceed to the homepage of this website – www.pm.gov.au – and browse from this entry point
- You can search the site using the quick search feature located on the top right of this page, or
- If you are looking for news and media items you should go to the media section and use the search on the right side of the page

Previous Prime Ministers' websites & transcripts

If you have any further queries or require any assistance, please contact us through the site feedback section on this site.