

Egypt renews commitment to settling Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam crisis

Mon, 2022-10-17 23:50

CAIRO: Egyptian President Abdel Fattah El-Sisi has called on the international community to pull together in a bid to find a just and lasting solution to the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam crisis.

His appeal on Sunday came at the opening of the fifth session of Cairo Water Week, organized by Egypt and entitled "Water at the Heart of Climate Action."

Egypt has renewed its commitment to attempting to settle the GERD issue in a manner that satisfies interests of all parties.

Main category:
Middle-East

---

Putin's gas hub offer to Turkey sparks

debate

Mon, 2022-10-17 23:50

ANKARA: An offer by Russian President Vladimir Putin to establish Turkey as a gas hub to European markets has stirred intense debate on the feasibility of the plan.

The proposal looks to position the TurkStream pipeline as an alternative to Europe's Nord Stream by exporting more gas through the Black Sea to Turkey.

Main category:
Middle-East

---

Frankly Speaking: Iranian opposition group NCRI urges Biden, EU to 'stand with Iranian people, support their demands for change'

Sun, 2022-10-16 22:03

DUBAI: As an unprecedented wave of civil unrest sweeps Iran, it is crucial that the world community, particularly Europe and the US, lends its support to the Iranian people and imposes greater sanctions on the regime in Tehran, according to the UK representative of an Iranian political opposition group.

“No matter what the mistakes, strategic mistakes, made by the United States, it is now time for the administration (of American President Joe Biden) to correct them and change its policy.

Main category:
Middle-East

---

Concern grows over expanding settler attacks in occupied West Bank

Sun, 2022-10-16 23:38

RAMALLAH: The UN is leading efforts to calm the situation in Nablus and Jenin in the West Bank, Tor Wennesland, UN special coordinator for the Middle East Peace Process, tweeted in an announcement on Sunday.

Wennesland said he held constructive meetings on Oct. 15 in Nablus and Jenin with influential figures to discuss the deteriorating security situation, and ways of restoring calm and pursuing a political solution.

He also stressed the need to reduce tensions and focus on tangible, permanent steps to improve the situation.

Main category:
Middle-East

---

Women-only Gaza restaurant feeding local needs

Sun, 2022-10-16 23:35

GAZA CITY: Reham Hamouda makes a point of walking around her restaurant to ask if customers are satisfied with the offerings available in her women-only eatery.

Recently opened Sabaya VIP restaurant in Gaza City caters exclusively for female diners.

“The restaurant was an idea, and it became a reality. There is financial independence for me and other female workers in this restaurant. All of them are women too,” Hamouda told Arab News.

Main category:
Middle-East