Massive fire put out at Alexandria Carrefour

Sun, 2022-08-21 18:13

CAIRO: A huge fire that broke out at a Carrefour hypermarket in Egypt's Mediterranean port city Alexandria was put out on Saturday without any loss of life, the Ministry of Interior said.

In a statement, the ministry added that the fire broke out in the central air conditioner at the top of the mall building in Muharram Bek where Carrefour is based, noting that it did not affect the rest of the building.

Sirens sounded and people at the mall left in a panic as columns of smoke rising from the fire were seen.

Lebanese municipality rapped over decision to move army memorial in Bekaa

Sat, 2022-08-20 23:47

BEIRUT: The decision of Taraya municipality, Bekaa, to move a memorial for Lebanese armed forces personnel from the town's entrance to the side of the road has come under criticism.

It was claimed that the memorial was moved to not disturb a photo associated with a political party.

The monument – a military armored vehicle – was given as a token of loyalty to the townspeople who had died while defending the country.

In pitch-dark Beirut National Museum of Beirut, visitors use cellphones to shine light on artifacts

Sat, 2022-08-20 23:37

BEIRUT: The National Museum of Beirut is in darkness as the diesel allocated by the Ministry of Culture to turn on the generators at this major tourism facility has run out.

The museum has seen fewer tourists since the beginning of the summer.

Its management has changed its opening hours, based on the sunlight that bathes its halls through the windows.

It is now open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. – it used to be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
