

Friends of Wighton event today!

From Sheena Wellington :

We have a Lunctime Recital with a difference today – Wednesday 3rd October – when musician Morag Anne Elder and former city archivist Iain Flett take us on a musical journey around the collectors and collections housed in the Wighton Heritage Centre.

From the base of Andrew James Wighton's original legacy The Wighton Collection has acquired, usually by donation, a fascinating range of musical books and manuscripts. Equally interesting are the stories of those generous people who gave us their treasured collections and we look forward to hearing more of the them and their music.

The recital runs from 1.15pm – 1.45pm. Admission is free; donations are welcomed.
