

£350,000 investment in rural roads in Armagh area

Three rural roads in the Armagh area will benefit from £350,000 of investment in the coming weeks.

Spotlight on support for families affected by mental illness and substance use

A symposium showcasing support for parents who have mental illness or substance use problems, and their families, is being held today at Queen's University Belfast.

Christmas With The Stars #dundeewestend

CHRISTMAS WITH THE STARS LIFELONG LEARNING DUNDEE

Brian Kelly, LLD's popular tutor on astronomy, and former City Astronomer at the Mills Observatory, will give this 45 minute talk specially for West End Christmas Fortnight.

November 29th / 7PM / Online / Free

As part of West End Christmas Fortnight, at 7pm tonight – ‘Christmas With The Stars’ – an on-line astronomy talk with thanks to Lifelong Learning Dundee.

Brian Kelly, LLD’s popular tutor on astronomy and former City Astronomer at the Mills Observatory on Balgay Hill, will give this 45 minute talk specially for West End Christmas Fortnight.

For more information contact lifelonglearningdundee@gmail.com

Applications now open for new Independent Autism Reviewer role

The Department of Health has launched a public appointment process to recruit Northern Ireland’s first Independent Autism Reviewer.

Civil Service Student Placement Scheme launched

The Northern Ireland Civil Service has launched its 2023 Student Placement Scheme, offering 140 placements across government departments.