

Bureaucrats shall think fresh taking a cue from Prime Minister – Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu

Minister of Information and Broadcasting, Urban Development and Housing & Urban Poverty Alleviation Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu today urged the bureaucracy to think fresh and act differently so as to live up to the expectations of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi.

NCST writes to DOPT to ensure minimum of two members from ST community to investigate issues of serious nature against ST employees

National Commission for Scheduled Tribes (NCST) has written to the Department of Personnel and Training to ensure that the committee constituted by Government departments to investigate any matter requiring penalty on employees belonging to Scheduled Tribes community should have minimum of two members from ST community.

86% timely wage payment under MGNREGS in 2017-18

Under MGNREGS, April to June, 2017 has seen a significant demand for wage labour specially for water conservation works. Nearly 75 Crore person days of work has already been created and more is expected by 15th July, 2017.

86% timely wage payment under MGNREGS in 2017-18

Under MGNREGS, April to June, 2017 has seen a significant demand for wage labour specially for water conservation works. Nearly 75 Crore person days of work has already been created and more is expected by 15th July, 2017.

Secretary (P) Shri BP Sharma dedicates compost bins in DoPT premises

Secretary (Personnel) Shri BP Sharma dedicated compost bins in the premises of the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) here today, on the concluding day of the Swachhta Pakhwada