

Dr. Mahesh Sharma Inaugurates an Exhibition 'Return of the three stone Sculptures from Australia to India'

Dr. Mahesh Sharma, Minister of State (I/C) for Culture and Tourism inaugurated an exhibition "Return of the Three Stone Sculptures from Australia to India" in National Museum, Janpath New Delhi today.

Third lecture in the series 'NITI Lectures: Transforming India' on May 25th by renowned business strategist, economist and author, Dr. Michael Porter

The third lecture in the 'NITI Lectures: Transforming India' series will be delivered by renowned American business strategist, economist and author, Dr. Michael E Porter on, Thursday, May 25th, 2017.

Government Working towards Developing Indigenous Defence Manufacturing Capability

The Government is working towards progressively reducing dependency on foreign manufacturers and developing the defence capabilities indigenously.

Prime Minister Gives a Clarion Call for Further Strengthening of Cooperation between India and African Countries

The Prime Minister declared the Five Day African development bank's annual meeting open at an impressive ceremony in Gandhinagar, Gujarat today. He gave a clarion call for further strengthening of the cooperation between India and African countries. His speech at the meeting

Shri J P Nadda addresses Plenary Meeting at the 70th World Health Assembly

"We are confident that India would be able to achieve the 9 targets under SDG 3 relating to health and well being for all at all ages."