

Advice to road users ahead of Storm Isha

Multi-agency partners have met and will continue to meet over the weekend as preparations continue ahead of Storm Isha which is forecast to bring strong winds on Sunday and Monday.

Significantly reduced health service on 18 January

The Department of Health is extremely concerned about the potential impact of planned industrial action on Thursday 18 January.

Northern Ireland Composite Economic Index Quarter 3 2023

The Northern Ireland Composite Economic Index (NICEI) Quarter 3 2023 was published today by the Northern Ireland Statistics & Research Agency (NISRA).

Department publishes response to the Relationships and Sexuality Education Consultation

The Department of Education has published the analysis of the response to the public consultation on changes to Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE) regulations.

County Londonderry farmer and hydroelectric operator convicted for fisheries related offence

A County Londonderry farmer and hydroelectric operator was found guilty of a fishery related offence and received a 12-month conditional discharge at Coleraine Magistrates Court today.