

Road improvement scheme for Dunloy Village

A £277,000 carriageway resurfacing and footway upgrade scheme on B16 Garryduff Road / Bellaghy Road, Dunloy will commence on Monday 02 August 2021.

Swann encourages public to respond to Duty of Candour consultation

Health Minister Robin Swann, has extended the deadline to allow for more key stakeholders and members of the public to respond to a consultation on a proposed duty of candour law for Northern Ireland.

Terms extended for current Probation Board for Northern Ireland Chair and Board members

Justice Minister Naomi Long has announced a three month extension to the term of the current Probation Board for Northern Ireland Chair and Board Members.

Executive statement on waiting lists

Tackling the hospital waiting list crisis is a collective priority for the Executive.

Mallon launches consultation on expansion of Glider to North and South Belfast

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has launched a public consultation to seek views on the emerging routes for Phase 2 of the Belfast Rapid Transit Project (BRT2) to help inform the identification of a preferred route in both South and North Belfast.