West End community engagement project #dundeewestend

Residents will recall my recent Facebook post at www.tiny.cc/MuseumOfHere from Freya Macleod, a University of Dundee student about her community engagement project.

Freya has extended the closing date for any resident interested in getting in touch – to next Wednesday – 24th March.

Full details are below :

looking for remote participants in Dundee West End

hi!

My name is Freya Macleod, I am a fourth year student of interior and environmental design at DJCAD and a resident of the area. I am looking to find twenty local participants who live in or around Dundee's West End to imagine their hopes for the future of living in the area, using words or images, to create a very quick and rough version of this wonderful place in a cardboard box with collage materials.

This would take 20-30 minutes.

Participating would include being sent a video with more details about the project, receiving a cardboard box of materials to collage with, and your box featuring in an exhibition at the end!

If this of interest to you or any member of your family, whatever the age, please drop me a line before Wednesday 24.03.21 via email, thank you!
