

Women and the Climate Crisis

On Monday 8th March, the Gate Church Carbon Saving Project and the University of Dundee – on International Women’s Day – are presenting a free online discussion, where an inspiring variety of guest speakers will discuss their roles and experience and why they think women can be a major part of solving the climate and ecological crises.

This event is being run as part of the Dundee Women’s Festival and you can find out more here.

---

Be Distance Aware

Health Minister Robin Swann has launched a new campaign to help promote distance awareness.

---

Executive marks milestone for £210m City Deal in North West

Executive Ministers will today mark a significant milestone in their vision for the regeneration of the North West, with the signing of the Heads of Terms for the £210million Derry~Londonderry and Strabane Region City Deal.

---

Statement on the High Streets Task Force

Junior Ministers Gary Middleton and Declan Kearney, joint chairs of the Executive's High Streets Task Force, have issued a statement following its first meeting:

---

Lyons brings forward new regulations in first step of transition for local agriculture

Agriculture Minister Gordon Lyons MLA has brought forward to the Northern Ireland Assembly new regulations aimed at ensuring the continued smooth delivery of direct agricultural support to farmers in 2021.