

US insurance firm EverQuote to set up development centre in Northern Ireland

Economy Minister Diane Dodds today announced that Massachusetts based EverQuote, Inc., an online insurance marketplace, is setting up a 70 person software development centre in Northern Ireland.

Launch of recruitment competition for Non-Executive Members for the Drainage Council Northern Ireland

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has announced a recruitment campaign to appoint six Non-Executive Members to the Drainage Council.

Major step forward in regeneration of Bangor – Minister Hargey

Communities Minister Deirdre Hargey has welcomed the planning approval of a £50m mixed use development in the Queen's Parade area of Bangor.

Plans to accelerate vaccinations spelt out

The Department of Health is today publishing a detailed update on Northern Ireland's Covid-19 vaccination programme.

Executive announces independent investigation into mother and baby homes

An independent investigation into mother and baby homes will be carried out, the Executive has agreed.