

Mental Health Champion for Northern Ireland

Health Minister Robin Swann has announced that his Department has commenced the process to appoint a new Mental Health Champion.

Poots issues guidance on Household Waste Recycling Centres

Environment Minister Edwin Poots has released a set of principles to help our local Councils decide if it's safe to re-open their household waste recycling centres.

Daily Covid-19 figures – 27 April 2020

The Department of Health confirms that today a further ten people have sadly lost their lives to Covid-19.

Mallon announces temporary changes to major planning application process to keep NI moving forward

Infrastructure Minister Nichola Mallon has today announced changes to the process for major planning applications, temporarily removing the requirement to hold a public event as part of the pre application community consultation.

Minister confirms details of health pay awards

The Minister of Health, Robin Swann, today provided an important update on pay for health and social care staff.