

O'Dowd: Bright future ahead for Rathlin

With a unique offering of three lighthouses on its shoreline and a rich natural environment, Rathlin Island can attract visitors from far and wide, Infrastructure Minister John O'Dowd has said.

Childcare initiatives deliver over £2million savings for Northern Ireland parents

Education Minister Paul Givan has welcomed that the new Northern Ireland Childcare Subsidy Scheme (NICSS) has saved parents almost £1million on their September childcare bills.

Kilrea company Hutchinson creating 57 jobs in a multi-million pound investment to boost productivity

Economy Minister Conor Murphy has announced that Kilrea-based company Hutchinson is making a significant investment in new equipment that will further boost its productivity and support planned growth including the creation of 57 new jobs.

Muir hails work of veterinary industry

Agriculture Minister Andrew Muir has paid tribute to the veterinary industry as he delivered the keynote address at the Annual British Veterinary Association (BVA) Northern Ireland dinner.

Applications sought for a Chairperson and Members for the Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment

The Department of Education has launched a public appointments competition to appoint a Chairperson and Members to the Council for the Curriculum, Examinations and Assessment (CCEA).