

Violence has no place in our society: Long

Justice Minister Naomi Long has called for an end to paramilitary style attacks following a shooting incident in Belfast last night that has left a 39-year-old man with life changing injuries.

New School Enhancement Projects announced

Education Minister Peter Weir has announced 18 schools which will advance in planning under the second call to the School Enhancement Programme (SEP).

Don't miss out – Business Development Groups Scheme Closing to Applications

Time is running out to apply for the Business Development Groups (BDG) Scheme before it closes at 4pm on 24 January 2020.

Central and East Regional Fair Trade Session

The Scottish Fair Trade Forum is running a series of sessions across Scotland to give supporters a chance to find out more about Fair Trade.

It aims to make these sessions as informal and practical as possible: we want you to leave feeling energised and empowered with new ideas, connections and up-to-date information on Fair Trade.

Sessions cover topics such as:

- Fair Trade campaigning in the climate emergency
- Harnessing the power of social media for Fair Trade campaigning
- Procurement

... and includes :

- Opportunities to meet other supporters
- Lunch and Fairtrade tea & coffee!

The Dundee event is this Saturday – 18th January – 11am to 1.30pm at the Dalhousie Building in the University of Dundee.

You can read more about this and book a place here.

New Infrastructure Minister Nicola

Mallon will focus on creating a sustainable infrastructure for future generations

New Minister for Infrastructure, Nichola Mallon will focus on creating sustainable infrastructure for future generations.