Pending manslaughter in Sha Tin

Police are investigating a pending manslaughter case in Sha Tin yesterday (June 9) in which a 76-year-old man died.

At about 10.45am today (June 10), Police received a report in which a 76-year-old man collapsed after being pushed to the floor in an elderly home in Kwong Sin Street yesterday. Sustaining head injuries, he was rushed to Prince of Wales Hospital and was subsequently certified dead at 6.15pm that day.

After initial investigation, Police arrested a 74-year-old man for manslaughter. He is being detained for further enquiries.

Post-mortem examinations will be conducted later to ascertain the cause of death of the deceased.

Investigation by the District Crime Squad of Sha Tin District is underway.

Correctional officers stop person in custody attacking staff

Correctional officers of Shek Pik Prison stopped a person in custody attacking an officer this afternoon (June 10).

At 12.09pm, the 58-year-old male person in custody suddenly turned emotional and attacked a correctional officer with his hand on the way to Dayroom. Officers at the scene immediately stopped him and called for reinforcement.

The correctional officer sustained injury to his chest during the incident, whilst the assailant reported headache and waist discomfort. After examination and treatment provided by the medical officer at the institution hospital, both the officer and the assailant were transferred to a public hospital for further treatment.

The Correctional Services Department has referred the incident to the Police for investigation.

The assailant was sentenced to imprisonment for the offence of shooting at any person with intent to cause grievous bodily harm.
