Hong Kong Observatory Calendar 2025 on sale

The Hong Kong Observatory Calendar 2025 is on sale today (November 15).

The calendar displays beautiful photos of weather and optical phenomena mostly contributed by photography enthusiasts through the Community Weather Observing Scheme. Members of the public can appreciate the wonders of nature through these photos, which include scenes of double rainbows, asperitas and upslope fog. The Hong Kong Observatory (HKO) hopes that the photos will encourage the general public to protect the environment, be aware of climate change and its impact, and embrace a greener lifestyle.

Each calendar photo has a QR code that allows readers to access information about the photo. The calendar also contains climate and astronomical information, including monthly climatological data and special climatological events, the times for the rising and setting of the sun and the moon, as well as tidal information.

At $29 a copy, the calendar is available for sale at the online Government Bookstore, the HKO Resource Centre, the Publications Sales Unit of the Information Services Department and the Kowloon Map Publications Centre of the Lands Department.

Tenders invited for civil works for Hung Shui Kiu Effluent Polishing Plant Phase 1

The Drainage Services Department (DSD) today (November 15) gazetted a notice to invite tenders for the contract for Hung Shui Kiu Effluent Polishing Plant Phase 1 – Civil Works (Contract No. DC/2024/11). The closing time for the tender is noon on January 10, 2025.

The works mainly include:

- construction of the civil works for sewage and sludge treatment facilities and the associated utilities and roadworks of the proposed Hung Shui Kiu Effluent Polishing Plant;
- construction of an administration building, a maintenance workshop building and a utility bridge; and
- other related works.

The works are scheduled to commence in July 2025 and will take about 64 months to complete.

The DSD has commissioned AECOM Asia Company Limited to design and supervise the works. Interested contractors can download the tender forms and other particulars from the e-Tendering System (e-TS). Tenderers must submit their tenders in electronic format via the e-TS.

Details of the tender notice are available on the DSD website (www.dsd.gov.hk/EN/Tender_Notices/Current_Tenders/index.html). For enquiries, please contact AECOM Asia Company Limited (tel: 3922 9000; fax: 3922 9797; email address: desmond.ng@aecom.com) during office hours.
