

Welsh workers set for pay rise with new National Minimum Wage

Up to 160,000 workers in Wales will receive a pay rise as the new National Living Wage and National Minimum Wage rates take effect.

Guidance: Create an organisation account on the Comply with UK REACH service

You'll need to create a Government Gateway account to access the Comply with UK REACH service.

Victims attend parole hearings to see offenders held to account

Victims can attend the parole hearings of their perpetrators from today (1 April) as part of the Government's Plan for Change.

Ditch single-use vapes as ban deadline looms

Shops encouraged to sell all remaining stock before 1 June 2025 deadline

New cyber laws to safeguard UK economy & secure long-term growth

The government sets out the scope and ambition of the Cyber Security and Resilience Bill for the first time today.