

Commission on leading practice in the animals in science sector

A commission for advice from the Home Office to the Animals in Science Committee (ASC) on strengthening leading practice in the animals in science sector.

Economic inactivity set to be tackled with funding boost

People with back, joint, and muscle issues living in areas with the worst waiting lists for musculoskeletal (MSK) conditions are set to be treated quicker and supported back into employment as the Government gets Britain wor...

Largest ever cash boost to turn the tide on homelessness

Councils across England will receive almost £1 billion of new funding next year to tackle, reduce and prevent homelessness.

Lyme Bay Fisherman's CIC

England's first grass roots fisher-led community interest company of 47 inshore fishers across the ports of Lyme Bay, Axmouth, Beer, Lyme Regis and West Bay.

Guidance: Implantation of cat and dog microchips

Apply to run a microchip implantation course, apply for a microchip exemption for a dog or cat, or report an animal's reaction to a microchip.