

Environment Agency casts its net out for fisheries improvement projects

Up to £20,000 is being made available to help projects protect and enhance their local fisheries.

Change of British High Commissioner to Zambia: Rebecca Terzeon

Ms Rebecca Terzeon has been appointed British High Commissioner to the Republic of Zambia in succession to Mr Nicholas Woolley. Ms Terzeon will take up her appointment during January 2025.

Appointment of Chairman of the Crown Nominations Commission for Canterbury: 16 December 2024

The Prime Minister has appointed The Lord Evans of Weardale KCB DL to be the Chairman of the Crown Nominations Commission for Canterbury.

UK amends international trade mark rules to allow partial replacement

The UK has updated its trade mark legislation to allow for partial replacement of domestic trade marks with international registrations under the Madrid System.

'Devolution by default' to create new era of local power

Landmark English Devolution White Paper set to unleash power from Whitehall back into local communities that know their areas best