

£100 million public-private health research boost

20 new clinical research hubs to be set up across UK to accelerate research into the next generation of treatments.

Patients, the NHS and the Life Sciences sector set to benefit from new clinical trials framework being laid in parliament today

The amended regulatory framework will speed up trial approvals and encourage innovation in trial design without compromising patient safety

Chief Medical Officer's Annual Report – Health in Cities

2024 Annual Report from Chief Medical Officer, Professor Chris Whitty, focusing on 'Health In Cities'.

LGBT veterans to receive up to £75 million in financial recognition for historic wrongs

Government has launched £75 million LGBT Financial Recognition Scheme after discussions with veterans.

Planning overhaul to reach 1.5 million new homes

An overhaul of the planning system to accelerate housebuilding and deliver 1.5 million homes over this Parliament.