

Press release: UK bolsters protection from dangerous animal diseases with £200m new funding

The Animal Plant Health Agency laboratories are to be significantly upgraded with £200 million investment.

Significant safety improvements for those working in the offshore sector

New international maritime regulations will become law next year, aiming to improve safety standards for those transported offshore to work on wind farm and oil gas installations.

Dr Susan Tranter named as permanent Chair of the Ofqual Board

The Education Secretary has appointed a permanent Chair of Ofqual to take up the role for three years.

British pork producers to bring home the bacon

Major UK pork producers can resume exports to China as the government secures the end Covid-era restrictions on UK unprocessed pork exports

Press release: British pork producers to bring home the bacon

Major UK pork producers can resume exports to China as the government secures the end Covid-era restrictions on UK unprocessed pork exports