

Thousands of British jobs to be created through closer UK-Saudi cooperation

Delivering on his Plan for Change, the Prime Minister will use his trip to the Gulf today (Sunday 8 December) to drive investment into cities and regions across the UK.

UK Development Minister focuses on "Driving Growth" in trip to Malawi and Zambia

The Minister of State for Development Anneliese Dodds will announce measures to drive growth in Africa, including educational support in Malawi and green growth projects in Zambia

PM statement on Syria

Words from Prime Minister Keir Starmer on events in Syria.

Government to tackle NHS workforce crisis with refreshed plan

Revised Workforce Plan to be unveiled in summer, ensuring we train necessary staff and provide the NHS with stability and certainty to plan into the future.

North West of England has its say on the future of the NHS

Attendees will hear from NHS England's Chief Nursing Officer, Duncan Burton, who will outline his commitment to transforming the NHS.