

New support for Small Business from HMRC

HMRC highlights online support for small businesses to help them understand their tax responsibilities

Saltmarsh fish survey shows positive results in Teesside

Officers from the Environment Agency have carried out surveys at Greatham, Teesside with positive results for local fish populations.

Essex 'drainage protection' company shut down following abusive cold-calling of vulnerable people

Company wound-up in the public interest after using hostile and misleading selling tactics

UK competition law enforcement: a look ahead

A speech by Juliette Enser, interim Executive Director for Competition Enforcement at the CMA, delivered at King's College London.

Upgraded facilities at Upavon for Military Intelligence Battalion

Construction is complete on a major project at Upavon to upgrade facilities for the army's lead counter-intelligence and forensic technical exploitation unit.