

Europe Director reflects on tackling gender-based violence in Bosnia and Herzegovina

16 Days of Activism Against Gender Based Violence campaign was an opportunity for Europe Director Victoria Billing to write her reflections on tackling gender-based violence in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

New accommodation under construction for junior ranks at RAF Marham

A ceremony has been held at RAF Marham to mark the start of work on the second of four new Single Living Accommodation blocks for personnel at RAF Marham.

Marine licences granted for cables, flood defences and saltmarsh restoration

Cables, flood defences and saltmarsh restoration all feature in the latest MMO Marine Licensing Team cases.

New specialist places to be created in mainstream schools

Major reforms to SEND system kicked off with £740 million capital investment to create more specialist places in mainstream schools

Diamonds are forever? World-first carbon-14 diamond battery made

The world's first carbon-14 diamond has been produced with the potential to provide power for thousands of years.