

Vehicle regulations

A new strategy outlines the government's approach to regulating cars, vans, motorcycles and other vehicles sold in the UK.

Pharmacists who illegally supplied more than 55 million doses of controlled drugs sentenced

Two pharmacists who sold 'industrial' quantities of Class C controlled drugs were yesterday sentenced to two years' imprisonment each, suspended for 24 months, at Southwark Crown Court following an investigation by the Crimi...

The Russian Federation's malign activities and interference: UK statement to the OSCE

Ambassador Holland outlines measures that the UK is taking in response to Russia's malign activity and interference.

Russia must stop its attacks against first responders and healthcare facilities: UK statement to OSCE

Ambassador Holland condemns Russia's attacks against healthcare workers and facilities, including "double tap" strikes, in Ukraine.

NSpOC Civil Space Protection Services

We provide space protection services that protect UK interests in space and on Earth, 365 days a year.