

The Building (Amendment) (England) Regulations 2024 – Part T: circular 02/2024

This circular draws attention to concerns around provision of toilets in buildings other than dwellings.

£4 million boost to fight knife crime

The government will invest a further £4 million to tackle the scourge of knife crime, the Home Secretary has announced.

Dstl helps develop national microbial forensics capability

The Defence Science and Technology Laboratory (Dstl) is leading on the creation of the United Kingdom Microbial Forensics Consortium (UKMFC).

Circular 022/2015: Money laundering, the confidentiality and sensitivity of suspicious activity reports (SARs) and the identity of those who make them

The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (POCA) requires banks and other businesses in the regulated sector to report knowledge or suspicion of money laundering to the National Crime Agency (NCA).

New technology to combat criminal gangs in Albania and UK

A sophisticated network of UK-funded cameras worth £1.6 million has been installed on the Albania-Kosovo border to tackle illegal migration and criminal gangs.