

Dundee Soldier Buried With Military Honours

A World War 1 soldier from Dundee who was identified in part through possible tartan fragments and a thistle brooch, has finally been laid to rest with full military honours.

---

TRA initiates review into ceramic tableware and kitchenware

The Trade Remedies Authority has initiated a transition review into an anti-dumping measure on certain ceramic tableware and kitchenware products from China.

---

The Building (Amendment) (England) Regulations 2024 – Part T: circular 02/2024

This circular draws attention to concerns around provision of toilets in buildings other than dwellings.

---

£4 million boost to fight knife crime

The government will invest a further £4 million to tackle the scourge of knife crime, the Home Secretary has announced.

---

Dstl helps develop national microbial forensics capability

The Defence Science and Technology Laboratory (Dstl) is leading on the creation of the United Kingdom Microbial Forensics Consortium (UKMFC).