

UK ramps up aid funding to help feed more than 850,000 people in Yemen

The Foreign Secretary has announced a significant uplift in aid funding for Yemen, to address one of the worst humanitarian crises in the world.

Work begins to shape vision for the Earnse Project in Cumbria

A project designed to build a deeper bond between a community and their natural heritage is in development at Earnse Bay on Walney Island.

Statutory guidance: Animal activities licensing: statutory guidance for local authorities

Guidance for local authority inspectors on licensing activities involving animals.

Bathing season kicks off across England for 2024

The bathing water season has started today, with monitoring by the Environment Agency now underway.

Guidance: Asian hornet: UK sightings

Annual confirmed sightings of the Asian hornet (Vespa velutina) in the UK.