

Patients to benefit from largest expansion of choice in a decade

Patients requiring treatment outside of hospitals will be able to choose between multiple providers across the NHS and independent sector.

Press release: Solar projects must fit in with food security

Energy Security Secretary has told Parliament that with growing geopolitical tension, the best agricultural land must be protected for food security.

£557 million for public buildings to switch to cleaner heating and save on energy bills

Schools, pools, and hospitals will be supported to make energy efficient upgrades, and businesses with high energy use will receive funding to help cut bills and emissions.

Developers given new tools to boost cyber security in AI models as cyber security sector sees record growth

New measures, anticipated to establish a global benchmark for enhancing the protection of AI models against hacking and sabotage, were unveiled today by the UK government.

Russia is using Iranian-made weapons to target Ukraine's electricity infrastructure: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the UN Security Council meeting on Ukraine.