

The Houthis' reckless attacks on maritime shipping undermine the stability of Yemen: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the UN Security Council meeting on Yemen.

New prison punishments introduced to curb bad behaviour

Prisoners who break the rules while behind bars face new community payback-style punishments like repair work and litter picking, under tough prison rules to be set out this week.

Defra considers potential new fund in drive to maximise value from R&D and innovation spending on agriculture and nature

Experts can now apply to advise Defra on new ways to finance innovation and achieve a return on investment, including the possibility of a dedicated fund

Press release: Defra considers potential new fund in drive to maximise value from R&D and innovation spending on agriculture and nature

Experts can now apply to advise Defra on new ways to finance innovation and achieve a return on investment, including the possibility of a dedicated fund

Cryptocurrency advice firm shut down after investors lost money and director failed to keep proper accounts

Amey Finance Academy Ltd wound-up at the High Court following investigations into the company's trading by the Insolvency Service