

England's World Leading Attendance Drive Continues

Next phase of DfE's world-leading attendance drive will provide new data for schools to help them spot trends in children's attendance for earlier intervention.

Leading tech firms invest over £2 billion in the UK in one week

Major investments have been made in the past week alone

Office for Place is recruiting for Non-Executive Directors

Do you want to play a leadership role supporting the creation and stewardship of popular, healthy, beautiful and sustainable places?

The Office for Place is seeking Non-Executive Board Members to provide independent advice...

Change of His Majesty's Ambassador to Sweden: Ms Samantha Job

Ms Samantha Job CMG MVO has been appointed His Majesty's Ambassador to the Kingdom of Sweden in succession to Ms Judith Gough CMG.

New bomb disposal robots for the British Army

New high-tech bomb disposal robots will provide greater protection for soldiers and the public in a new deal for the British Army announced today (10 May).