

Eight-year ban for director of Scottish nuisance cold-calls firm

The company made millions of unsolicited cold-calls, with thousands of people complaining to the Information Commissioner's Office

International law must be "fit for the challenges of 21st century"

International law must remain in lockstep with the changing 21st century world and the needs of citizens or face irrelevance the Lord Chancellor, Alex Chalk, will stress to the G7's justice leaders today (9 May 2024).

MHRA launches AI Airlock to address challenges for regulating medical devices that use Artificial Intelligence

The Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) has today (9 May 2024) launched AI Airlock, its new regulatory sandbox for AI as a Medical Device (AIaMD).

Reforms piloted to link pay to results in the Civil Service

New measures to improve performance and ensure the civil service can recruit and retain the best talent were announced this morning by Minister for the Cabinet Office, John Glen at the Reform Think Tank Annual Conference at ...

London builder hit with 10-year ban after abuse of covid loan scheme

Director overstated his company's turnover to claim the maximum Bounce Back Loan and could not account for how the money was spent