

Whooping cough cases continue to rise

New data published today by the UK Health Security Agency (UKHSA) shows cases of whooping cough continue to increase with 1,319 cases confirmed in March.

Call for evidence launched on how to future-proof classic cars and back drivers

Have your say on potential changes to registering historic, classic, rebuilt, and electrically converted vehicles.

Secretary of State visits Air Ambulance NI operational base

The visit highlighted the crucial work the Air Ambulance carry out and how the UK Government can continue to support the charity

Guidance: Defra group Pre-release access to Official Statistics compliance statement

Defra group Pre-release Access to Official Statistics: Statement of Compliance.

Letter to registered providers: Regulation fees Q2-Q4 (2024-25)

The Regulator of Social Housing has written to all private registered providers regarding updated regulation fees.