

New laws to protect consumers from cyber criminals come into force in the UK

From today, regulations enforcing consumer protections against hacking and cyber-attacks will take effect, mandating that internet-connected smart devices meet minimum-security standards by law.

Government Work Scheme delivers almost 100,000 placements highlighting Britain's new approach to Welfare

Almost 100,000 workplace training places have been delivered in the past year for jobseekers, smashing the Government's 80,000 annual target, new data has revealed.

Guidance: Hold a bird gathering

What counts as a bird gathering, and how to notify the Animal and Plant Health Agency.

Statement from Welsh Secretary and Chair of the Tata Steel/Port Talbot Transition Board

Secretary of State for Wales-led Transition Board agrees broad support plan for those affected by Tata's move to greener steel.

Government to launch new consultation to protect UK universities from security threats

The Deputy Prime Minister, Oliver Dowden, yesterday announced his intention to launch a consultation on measures to protect UK universities from national security threats posed by foreign states.