

Government response to Regulatory Horizons Council report on the regulation of space technologies

The Minister for Science, Research and Innovation has responded to recommendations made by the Regulatory Horizons Council on the regulation of space technologies.

A “highly valued” and “strategic partner” – GAD client feedback

Clients award GAD 4.7 stars out of 5 for being highly valued. The findings are from our latest client feedback exercise which surveyed our clients about GAD.

Palestinian civilians in Gaza are facing a devastating and growing humanitarian crisis: UK statement at the UN Security Council Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the UN Security Council meeting on Gaza.

Aviation fuel plan supports growth of British aviation sector

Measures announced to give UK aviation and the SAF industry the certainty to keep creating skilled British jobs while ensuring air travel is fit for the future.

ASEAN and UK Launch £25 Million Economic Integration Programme

The UK Mission to ASEAN and the ASEAN Secretariat launched the ASEAN-UK Economic Integration Programme (EIP) in Jakarta to foster economic growth in the region.