

Coal Authority frees up data for the public sector

Public sector organisations are now able to license Coal Authority data for free.

UK improves access to life-saving malaria drugs

Support for MedAccess will be used to negotiate lower prices for vital malaria drugs and diagnostic tests for people in countries affected by the disease

AAIB Report: Ventus-2CT, G-KADS and E1 Antares, G-CLXG, on 17 August 2023

Report into a fatal accident involving two gliders which collided during a competition flight near Melton Mowbray, Leicestershire, 17 August 2023

Awesome report and safety flyer published

Two fatalities following the loss of control of a powerboat near Little Thatch Island, British Virgin Islands.

Report by the Secretary General of the Council of Europe, April 2024: UK response

Ambassador Neil Holland thanks Secretary General Buric for her leadership and for the Council of Europe's ongoing collaboration with the OSCE.