

New proposals just the ticket for getting young people into transport

Proposals could improve job opportunities for people aged 18 to 20, ease driver shortages and provide more reliable bus and coach services across England.

New non-executive director appointed to the SIA

The Minister for Safeguarding has appointed a new non-executive director to the Board of the Security Industry Authority.

Travellers urged check on vaccinations to protect against risks

UKHSA urges overseas travellers, including Hajj pilgrims, to check well in advance to ensure they are up to date and have all necessary vaccinations

Guidance: Basic Payment Scheme

Payments for farmers who carry out eligible agricultural activities, what you need to know and do before you can apply for an annual payment.

CMA wins second legal challenge in C r lia/Jus-Rol case

The Court of Appeal has fully dismissed a legal challenge from C r lia, and upheld the Competition Appeal Tribunal's finding that the CMA was 'rational and fair' in its merger review.