

Minister for the Cabinet Office, John Glen's speech on evaluation in government

Minister for the Cabinet Office, John Glen's speech to the Evaluation Taskforce Annual Conference at the Queen Elizabeth II Centre.

New plans revealed to support UK's fishing industry

Small fishing businesses will no longer be forced ashore and financially burdened by the cost of medical assessments.

Fishers' medical certificate exemption

The removal of the need for medical certificates will apply to existing fishermen on vessels of 10 metres and under.

Update – The Pubs Code Adjudicator has concluded its review of Star's reported breaches of the Pubs Code in relation to information given to tied tenants about premises insurance

Star has now revised its communications with tied tenants to ensure it provides transparent information in relation to premises insurance as required by the Pubs Code.

Scottish Secretary Alister Jack responds to January 2024 GDP

Priority remains achieving sustainable growth says Secretary of State, as latest encouraging figures published