

New groundbreaking projects given green light with over £1m of government funding

The final phase of the government's £15 million Evaluation Accelerator Fund (EAF) has been announced as part of the commitment to making the UK a global leader in evidence-based policy-making.

---

New online hub launches for National Infrastructure Projects

'Find a National Infrastructure Project', a new online hub for large-scale projects, has been launched by the Planning Inspectorate.

---

FCDO summons Chinese Chargé d'Affaires over malicious cyber activity

The Chargé d'Affaires at the Chinese Embassy attended the summons after attribution of cyber attacks to Chinese state-affiliated individuals and organisations

---

Managing risks around 'net zero'

The importance of managing risks around net zero, and areas where GAD can help the public sector with plans for net zero projects, were explored at a key event.

---

South African projects seize opportunity to tackle climate crisis and create jobs

Fifteen exciting climate projects from across the country have been selected to take part in the third phase of the Climate Finance Accelerator (CFA) in South Africa.