

UK and Ontario to share knowledge and technology behind the National Underground Asset Register

UK and Ontario sign a collaboration agreement at the Geospatial Summit to share the knowledge and technology behind the National Underground Asset Register.

Plans to expand water fluoridation in north east

Consultation launched on proposals to expand scheme to 1.6 million more people to help tackle tooth decay

UK donation to the International Criminal Court's Special Fund for Security will help to protect the Court from future cyber-attacks

Today, Lord (Tariq) Ahmad announced the UK's voluntary contribution of £300,000 to the International Criminal Court's Special Fund for Security, the second-highest contribution to date.

Better flood protection planned for Isle of Wight

More than 300 properties and businesses to be better protected from flooding and coastal erosion in Yaverland, Sandown and Shanklin on the Isle of Wight.

Universal Periodic Review Adoption – Russian Federation

This UK statement for the Russian Federation's Universal Periodic Review was not delivered.