

Minister Halfon's speech at the Skills Matter Event

Minister Halfon delivers a speech on adult education at the Skills Matter Event.

Russia is conducting a brutal campaign of human rights violations and resorting to disinformation to justify its aggression: UK statement to the OSCE

As Ambassador Holland marks 10 years since Russia's illegal annexation of Crimea, Russia's repressive measures in Crimea have become a blueprint for its actions in the temporarily Russian controlled territories.

Small boat pilot jailed after endangering more than 50 lives

A small boat pilot has been jailed after crossing the Channel with more than 50 migrants in a perilously overcrowded dinghy.

Graves of lost World War One soldiers identified in Belgium

The graves of three World War One soldiers, from Somerset, London and Staffordshire, have now been marked more than a century after their deaths.

UK firm appointed to build Australian AUKUS submarines

The partnership between British firm BAE Systems and ASC Pty Ltd could be worth billions of pounds, in a major boost to the UK's defence industry