

Revolutionary rocket eats for the stars

Igniting innovation: With the help of DASA funding, engineers from the University of Glasgow successfully test-fired a rocket that eats itself for fuel

---

CMA consultation responses and evidence regarding regulation and the role of regulators in the UK

The CMA has provided evidence to the House of Lords and published two consultation responses on regulation and the role of regulators in the UK.

---

100th asylum hotel set to close next week

Home Secretary delivers on plan to reduce use of asylum hotels with 100 asylum hotels returned to communities by next week, up from 60 at the end of January.

---

UK businesses continue to adapt to changes in UK internal market

OIM report suggests trade between UK nations is not a challenge for most, while policy design can minimise disruption.

---

Letter to accounting officers: 20 March 2024

Letter from David Withey, Chief Executive of the Education and Skills Funding Agency, to accounting officers in colleges.