

Press release: Keeping primates as pets banned

It will no longer be possible to keep primates as household pets in environments that fail to provide for their needs

Keeping primates as pets banned

It will no longer be possible to keep primates as household pets in environments that fail to provide for their needs

UK launches project to support survivors of gender-based violence in Somalia

UK top official launches Gaashaan project to support survivors of gender based-violence in Somalia.

Universal Periodic Review 45: UK Statement on Malta

The UK delivered a statement on 6 February 2024 during Malta's Universal Periodic Review at the Human Rights Council.

Sample Preservation, Analysis, And Attribution (SPAA)

DASA's new competition seeks novel and innovative approaches that can identify and attribute ChemBio materials for justice.