

Grave of Donegal soldier identified in France more than 100 years after his death

The grave of Company Quartermaster Serjeant (CQMS) John Doherty MM (Military Medal), who went missing in France on 22 March 1918, has been identified.

There can be no justification for Russia's attacks against children: UK statement to OSCE Special Permanent Council

Ambassador Holland condemns Russia's latest missile attack against Ukrainian cities, including a strike against the Okhmatdyt Children's Hospital in Kyiv.

Boost for new National Wealth Fund to unlock private investment

The Government announces new plans to align key institutions under the National Wealth Fund that will boost growth and unlock investment.

Public invited to comment on Sizewell C construction permits

The Environment Agency has opened 2 public consultations which close on 6 August 2024

Human Rights Council 56: UK Statement on Central African Republic

UK Statement for the Interactive Dialogue with the Independent Expert on Central African Republic (CAR) at Human Rights Council in Geneva.