

Leading the cyber and electromagnetic domain

General Jim Hockenfull explained how Strategic Command leads the cyber domain for Defence during a speech at the Royal United Services Institute.

New package of measures to help families save even more on bills

As energy prices fall to their lowest level in two years, the government is launching a package of measures to help families save even more with cheaper deals.

New £2 maximum stake for under 25s playing online slots

Stake limits for online slot games will be introduced for the first time in September, including lower limits for young adults, as the Government continues to roll out measures to protect people from gambling harms.

40 projects to benefit from £25 million funding for natural flood management

40 projects across England set to benefit from £25 million funding for using nature to increase the nation's flood resilience

Press release: 40 projects to benefit from £25 million funding for natural flood management

40 projects across England set to benefit from £25 million funding for using nature to increase the nation's flood resilience