

Tougher laws to protect children from sexual abuse

Children will be better protected from sexual predators under plans being brought forward by the Home Secretary.

The UK is deeply concerned at the worsening violence in eastern DRC: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Deputy Political Coordinator Thomas Phipps at the UN Security Council meeting on DRC.

Six exciting projects join third phase of Climate Finance Accelerator Peru

Six Peruvian businesses that are adopting innovative approaches to fighting climate change have been selected to join the third phase of Climate Finance Accelerator Peru (CFA). The successful projects were chosen from over 7...

Alan Lovell: NFU Conference 2024 'Farming and the Environment: the Regulator's view'

Alan Lovell, Chair of the Environment Agency delivers speech at 2024 NFU Conference.

GAD expands pensions administration consultancy team

GAD has expanded its pensions administration consultancy team which provides support to pension scheme clients on strategic administration related projects.