

AAIB Report: Leonardo AW189, G-MCGT, on 26 July 2021

Report into a serious incident involving a Leonardo AW189 (G-MCGT) which sounded a terrain warning during a go-around due to rising ground ahead at Ballintoy Harbour, County Antrim on 26 July 2021.

Form: Natural England's nutrient mitigation scheme for developers

Apply to buy nutrient mitigation credits from Natural England to offset nutrient pollution from housing development.

National Statistics: Latest cattle, sheep and pig slaughter statistics

Monthly UK statistics on cattle, sheep and pig slaughter and meat production.

Housing associations continue to reinvest operating surplus into new and existing homes, RSH report shows

RSH publishes the Value for Money metrics so boards and other stakeholders can assess how each housing association is performing against its peers.

State-of-the-Art Weather Centre Headquarters Given Go-ahead

Planning permission has been granted to develop a new headquarters for the European Centre for Medium-Range Weather Forecasts at the University of Reading.