

PM to publish review defining the UK's place in the world

The Integrated Review creates a framework for government policy in the coming years, to enable the UK to shape a more open international order where democracies flourish

HMS Queen Elizabeth visits Western Scotland for the first time

The Royal Navy's Fleet Flagship, HMS Queen Elizabeth, has arrived in Glen Mallan, Scotland, as part of final preparations before her first operational deployment.

The Royal Navy leads an international task group of warships on a security patrol of the Baltic

Royal Navy frigates led vessels from all three Baltic states in the first operation of the UK-led Joint Expeditionary Force.

International Women's Day 2021: Choose to Challenge

Ministry of Defence police officers share their stories and perspectives.

Mental health toolkit rolled out across entire Royal Navy fleet

Every member of the Royal Navy can now boost their mental health and fitness with access to an offline version of the mental health platform HeadFIT.