

British troops train Zambian rangers to catch poachers

Soldiers from the Royal Gurkha Rifles supported the Zambian National Anti-Poaching Task Force by sharing their skills with recruits

Wales to play part in delivering new British Army vehicle

A Cardiff-based business has been awarded a £20m contract to provide components for a new armoured fighting vehicle.

Register for the 2021 international Chemical Weapons Demilitarisation conference

Dstl will host the 23rd CWD conference, bringing together international experts to work together to achieve a future free from chemical weapons.

Armed Forces support for vaccine roll-out in Wales

UK Government announces that the Armed Forces will be deployed across Wales this winter to help set up and operate community vaccination centres.

RAF surveillance fleet to be based in Moray

The move demonstrates the UK Government's commitment to investing in Scotland